

LUIGI MATARAZZO

Born in Caiazzo (Caserta) on December 12th 1965.

In 1990, he graduated cum laude in naval and mechanical engineering at the University Federico II in Naples. He is currently the Executive Vice President of the Merchant Ships Business Unit.

He started his career in Fincantieri in 1991 joining the project engineering department for cruise vessels. In 1998 he has been appointed as Chief Designer.

In 1999 he has been appointed Lead Project Engineer for HAL Cruise Vessels. He covered this role up to November 2002. From December 2002 to February 2004 he assumed the responsibility for hotel areas at Fincantieri shipyard in Marghera. Back to Trieste in 2004, he became project manager for HAL/P&O/Cunard ships, role he has covered up to 2006 when he assumed the responsibility of Engineering & Design for both Merchant and Cruise ships Business units integrating them by 2007.

Within the Corporate, in 2010 he became Deputy Chief Operating Officer and Executive responsible for Engineering. In 2011 he ad interim also became executive responsible for industrial system; role he accomplished in 2013 when he has been in charge with manufacturing & design Integration in Merchant Ships Business Unit also maintaining both the role of Deputy chief Operating Officer and the role of Executive responsible for Engineering, role kept up to 2015.

In March 2016 he is named Executive Vice President of New Building, up to August 2018 when he is appointed Director of Merchant Ships Business Unit.

Moreover, from April 2014 he entered of the Board of Cetena Spa (Technology study center controlled by Fincantieri). From May 2014 he also entered the Board of Euroyards which is grouping EU five major yards. From 2007 he has also been member of the Technical Committee of RINA the Italian Naval Register for two consecutive terms.

August 1st 2018